In the matter of exempting officers of certain Departments from census work, the Plague Department is omitted in the draft notification, as there is no such department in existence now. The Palace, Medical and Press Department Officers may be exempted as on the former occasion, though the Census Act does not contemplate any exemption at all and officers of all departments are liable for duty under the Census Act.

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Census Superintendent.

I have the honour to state that in connection with the appointment of officials of the several Government Departments in the City, as Supervisors and Enumerators for the ensuing 8th Decennial Census. a requisition was sent the heads of offices located in the Mysore City to furnish a list of names of the ministerial staff of their departments for appointment as Supervisors and Enumerators.

In reply, some officers have stated their inability to spare the services of their staff for one reason or the other. A further reference has been made to those officers stating that the success of Census work depended mostly upon the co-operation of the Government officers and their officials, and requesting them to kindly arrange to furnish the list called for at a very early date.

3 In this oonnection I would suggest that as a large number of hands is required in the City, Government may be kindly moved to issue circular instructions to the officers of all the departments, for the co-operation of the Government officers and officials for the conduct of census work as was done on the last occasion.

A list of departments exempted from the census work, if any, may kindly be forwarded to this office for reference.
